Code Missouri

Expanding Computer Science in Rural Missouri

Code Missouri is an initiative to expand high-quality computer science programs across Missouri with a focus on rural school districts.

8,000+
open computing jobs in Missouri

$82,050
average salary for a computing occupation in MO

631
Missouri students took the AP Computer Science exams in 2017

25%
of students in the United States are rural

The CodeHS Commitment

CodeHS is committed to offering CodeHS Pro and professional development to 15 rural school districts in Missouri for free. Districts can learn more and apply online today at CodeMissouri.com.

CodeHS